1. How does the fungibility mechanism work for OMH Shares between the ASX and Bursa Malaysia? Will OMH Shares be tradeable on the ASX and Bursa Malaysia?

All OMH shares listed and quoted on the ASX and Bursa Malaysia will be fully fungible. Shareholders holding OMH shares on the Australian share register, maintained by Computershare Investor Services Pty Limited (Computershare) our Australian Share Registrar, may request to remove their OMH shares to the Malaysian share register, maintained by Tricor Investor & Issuing House Services Sdn Bhd (Tricor) our Malaysian Share Registrar, for trading on Bursa Malaysia and vice versa. The register removal process will take at least 3 market days to complete upon receipt of a valid and completed removal form.

An illustration of the fungibility mechanism between the 2 registers and exchanges is set out below:-

Scenario A: Shareholder A with 10,000 OMH shares held on the Australian share register wishes to remove them to the Malaysian share register for trading on Bursa Malaysia

Scenario B: Shareholder B with 10,000 OMH shares on the Malaysian share register wishes to remove them to the Australian share register for trading on the ASX

2. For the removal of shares from Australia to Malaysia, what accounts should I open before submitting the Register Removal Request form?

Shareholders who wish to remove their shares to the Malaysian share register and trade on Bursa Malaysia must ensure a Central Depository System (CDS) account is opened with an Authorised Depository Agent (ADA) or Authorised Direct Member (ADM) registered with Bursa Depository before submitting the register removal request to Computershare. The CDS account may be held through either an individual trading account/CDS account or a nominee account. Link here for more information on how to open a CDS account.

Alternatively, shareholders may establish an account with their local preferred brokers who are able to facilitate the trading of shares on Bursa Malaysia.

3. For the removal of shares from Malaysia to Australia, what accounts should I open before submitting the Register Removal Request form?

Similarly, shareholders who wish to remove their shares to the Australian share register and trade on the ASX will need to establish an account with a broker or custodian who is able to facilitate the trading of shares on the ASX.

NOTE: Shareholders who are residents of Malaysia for the purposes of the Foreign Exchange (FE) Notices and subject to the prevailing FE Notices in relation to the permitted thresholds for investment abroad may be required to seek the prior approval of Bank Negara Malaysia should they wish to remove their shares from the Malaysian share register for trading on the ASX. There is no restriction for a non-resident of Malaysia (for the purposes of the FE Notices) to subscribe for the purchase of securities in Malaysia.

4. What are the trading hours on the ASX and Bursa Malaysia?

The trading hours on the respective exchanges are as follows:-

| | Trading hours | Time zone |
|-----------------------|---|---|
| Bursa Malaysia | 9.00 a.m. to 12.30 p.m. 2.30 p.m. to 4.50 p.m. | Kuala Lumpur Time zone: GMT +08.00 |
| ASX | 10.00 a.m. to 4.00 p.m. | Sydney Time zone: GMT +11:00 (daylight saving time) GMT +10:00 (non-daylight saving time) |

Shareholders should also take note of the respective market days on which both exchanges are open for trading which may differ as well as the time difference between the Malaysian market and Australian market. Accordingly, Malaysia will be 2 or 3 hours behind Australia (Sydney time), depending on the daylight saving time. Further information of which is available on the respective exchanges websites at www.bursamalaysia.com and www.asx.com.au

5. What are the fees involved for the removal of shares between the registers?

There is no payment required by a shareholder for the register removal request. Relevant transmission and administrative fees between the share registrars (Computershare Investor Services Pty Limited and Tricor Investor & Issuing House Services Sdn Bhd) will be borne by the Company. Shareholders will bear all other fees, amongst others, such as account opening fees, trading fees, clearing fees and brokerage fees charged by the respective brokers and exchanges, where applicable.
